

5. Plaintiff Relators and their counsel signed the agreement and returned the agreement to counsel for Defendants on April 17, 2020; Defendants Carolina Wrecking and Charles Dowey executed the agreement on that same date. The parties currently are awaiting signatures from Fencon and the United States. Upon receipt of those signatures, the parties anticipate the consummation of the settlement agreement and the filing of a stipulation of dismissal with prejudice as to the claims of the Relators and a stipulation of dismissal without prejudice as to the claims of the United States, in full accordance with the written settlement agreement. The parties anticipate that these filings will occur in the next ten to fifteen calendar days, noting that the impacts of recent Covid virus have, on occasion, delayed and impaired communications between the parties.
